

COX AND ROOSEVELT DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Relative of the Great Teddy— But a Democrat—Wins Vice- Presidential Nomination

(By Associated Press)
San Francisco, July 7.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, a relative of the president who bore that name, was chosen by the Democratic convention Tuesday as its candidate for vice president and running mate for Gov. Cox, of Ohio.

The band wagon movement for Mr. Roosevelt got under way very soon after the convention assembled and, although other candidates were presented, there was no doubt of his selection from the first.

The gossip about the bill that the Tammany organization, with whom Roosevelt has not always been on good terms, was disinclined to accept him at first, but in the language of the politicians have been working for Roosevelt, "Tammany decided to swallow him."

Timothy Amsberry, one of the District of Columbia, delegates, made the nominating speech for Roosevelt. Governor Smith, New York, seconded it. The band wagon movement then got under full swing. One after another of the candidates withdrew their names. These candidates included Governor Stewart of Montana; General L. D. Tyson, of Tennessee; Edward L. Dohney, of California; Judge James H. Hawley, of Idaho; James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois; and David I. Francis, of St. Louis, former ambassador to Russia.

It was exactly 3:50 o'clock when the convention, with loud cheers, nominated Roosevelt. With a loud shout the first party cry of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang out. Senator Robinson, permanent chairman of the convention, was appointed chairman of committee to notify Cox of his nomination, and National Chairman Cummings, of the committee, to notify Roosevelt.

Some of the managers remarked for the second time leaders of the state of New York had, against their will, accepted a man named Roosevelt on the national ticket. The late Thomas Platt was reluctant to accept Theodore Roosevelt for the vice presidential place in 1900, and the Tammany organization was reported no more favorably inclined to accept F. D. Roosevelt.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, accepted by acclamation as Democracy's candidate for the vice presidency at San Francisco yesterday, is the assistant secretary of the navy, and is recognized as one of the most capable men in Washington. His home state is New York.

CONGRATULATE COX

Thousands of telegrams of congratulation are pouring in upon Gov. Cox at his home at Dayton, Ohio. Among them: McAdoo, defeated candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, sent the following telegram:

"Heartiest congratulations and assurances of my cordial support." In a congratulatory telegram to Governor Cox from Senator Warren G. Harding, the Republican nominee, the senator said: "I recall a cartoon which portrayed you and me as newsboys contesting for the White House delivery. It seems to have been prophetic. As an Ohioan and fellow publisher, I congratulate you on your notable victory."

Ambassador John W. Davis, informed of the nomination of Governor Cox, sent the following message:

"My hearty congratulations upon your nomination. You can and will lead the party to well deserved victory."

Secretary of War Newton D. Baker sent this message to Governor Cox:

"Accept my hearty congratulations and all the support I can give in the campaign." At the same time Secretary Baker issued the following statement:

"In his three terms as governor of Ohio, Governor Cox has demonstrated his great executive ability and his forward looking and aggressive democracy. He is fearless and high-minded. During the war he put all the resources of his office and his personal talents into the struggle and stood unwaveringly with those who were making and keeping America ready to do her great task. The nomination will be received with joy and pride in Ohio and the country will find him an aggressive Democrat with a record of achievement."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FISCAL COURT

Big Volume Of Business Disposed Of—Contract For Red House Bridge Let—Other Matters

The Madison fiscal court met yesterday at 10 o'clock, and after the reading of the minutes of the June term by County Clerk J. W. Maupin, and their approval, proceeded with the usual business of approving various claims, covering general expenditures and road and bridge expenses for the past month. A number of persons appeared before the court, among them being William J. Gooch, of Coyle asking that a portion of road No. 107 be relocated so as to relocate it away from the creek. The matter was referred to the county judge and county road engineer for investigation.

Mrs. Anna Davis asked for a contribution by the county on the building of a stone wall near East fork of Otter creek on the Red House pike, but this was refused upon a roll call.

A communication from Col. H. B. Hanger was read by Judge Pice, in which he called attention to the bad condition of the Lexington pike, between Richmond and Clay's Ferry, but no action was taken on the matter of the improvement of this road, as it is effected by the new road laws, and it is the purpose of the court to request the new state highway commission and highway commissioner, Joseph S. Boggs, to give preference to this road in improvements by the state under the new law which designates 84 miles of road in Madison county as a part of the state highway system.

The county road engineer was directed to advertise for bids for the improvement of the roads in which changes to eliminate grade crossings near Red House were ordered made by the county court, and bids for the work will be opened at a special meeting of the court on July 20, at which time a contract will be let if a satisfactory bid is secured.

Plans and specifications covering the improvements contemplated have been prepared and filed with the court by the county road engineer and were approved.

At the afternoon session of the court H. B. Forbes submitted plans and drawings covering the section of the proposed concrete bridge at Red House and was awarded the contract at his bid of $69,450, which also includes the building of a small bridge near C. W. Cobb's residence, and the head walls on the new pike east of the railroad and north of Red House. The Red House bridge will consist of four spans of 30 feet each, reinforced concrete floor on concrete piers, with 16 feet of roadway and will be erected substantially in conformity with the state highway department's requirements as to strength and pattern.

Work will be started on this bridge as soon as material can be secured, which will probably be in about 40 days.

AWARDS CONTRACT FOR HEATING SYSTEM

The B. F. Hurst Company, Richmond, Will Begin Work At Infirmary Immediately

While there were a number of bidders for the contract work of installing a new heating apparatus at the Pattie A. Clay infirmary, the B. F. Hurst Company, of Richmond, was awarded the contract, according to members of the board of directors, who held a meeting Tuesday for the purpose of getting the work under headway as soon as possible.

The contract calls for a complete Dunham Vapor heating service throughout the building, and the work of establishment will be taken up at once. Mr. Hurst, who has been interested in the progress of the infirmary and its welfare, stated today that the work would be started immediately.

The meeting of the board resulted in other business matters being taken up and disposed of, and which will be heard from later. Mrs. George Simmons, of Richmond, secretary of the board of directors, was in attendance at the meeting, as were Mrs. A. J. Suit, Miss Helen Bennett and others. According to interest manifest by these ladies, the institution will not be allowed to suffer. With the proceeds resulting from the recent campaign, together with the funds from the fiscal court and others, it is believed the work will be taken up and continued until all improvements contemplated at present are completed.

BIRTHDAY EVENT OF OLD CITIZEN

W. E. Reeves celebrated his 94th birthday Monday at his home in Union City, with almost 100 persons, including children and grandchildren present, and the event was an enjoyable one. The entire day was given up to pleasure by the relatives and friends of the aged man who seemed equal to the occasion and met and greeted almost every one present personally.

An elaborate dinner was one of the features of the day during which the mingling of friends and relatives, many of whom had not met for years, thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The visitors were provided with well filled baskets and the repast was one long to be remembered. The aged host enjoyed the visit of his old friends, some of whom were from this city, including J. A. McClintock. The latter delivered an impressive oration during the afternoon. Jefferson Reeves, of Clark county, was another visitor who delivered an interesting talk. It is hoped that the event will be repeated next year. Mr. Reeves is one of the oldest and best known residents of Union City.

NO "FRONT PORCH" CAMPAIGN FOR COX

(By Associated Press)
Dayton, O., July 7.—Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, announced today he will make no campaign plans until he confers with party leaders, probably at the end of the week. That his campaign will not be of the "front porch" variety, a planned by Senator Harding, the Republican candidate, is inferred from the telegram of acceptance wired to the convention.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, vice presidential candidate, is due here from San Francisco to map out campaign plans with Governor Cox.

ALL HARMONY NOW COX LIKES RUNNING MATE

(By Associated Press)
San Francisco, July 7.—While the delegates to the Democratic convention scrambled on out-bound trains today, Democratic leaders are elated over the harmonious spirit that marked the last hours of the convention. It is generally agreed that the convention was a great success, and in the nomination of Roosevelt for vice president by acclamation following the withdrawal of all other candidates these leaders saw evidence of differences disappearing and determination to work hard for victory in the November election.

DISREGARD OF RULES AT BEACH

Government May Cause Arrest For This Dangerous Practice At Boonesboro

Government rules are being broken at Boonesboro Beach, according to statements of representatives of the government as well as the pleasure resort, and the fact that there is and has been considerable dredging causes a change in the river channel, thereby making it dangerous for bathers to go beyond the lines, is admitted readily, and with emphasis. It is said that despite the efforts of guards, there is a persistent practice among men and boys especially to go beyond the prohibited line, leaving the waters of the beach and entering into the waters of the government, where extensive work has been done.

Dr. D. J. Williams, as well as a government employ stated today that there had been changes in the river, owing to the dredging, and that youths, barely able to swim, in some instances, would watch the guards and slip into the deep water, apparently for amusement, not realizing the danger. Arrests will perhaps follow a continuation of this dangerous practice. The temperature of the water changes there and is very cold in places, rendering a bather very liable to cramps.

The committee will decide later whether Armstrong will be called a witness.

CHAUTAUQUA FOLKS CAUGHT BY DELUGE

Some Merry, Some Otherwise, But All More Or Less Wet; Closing Features

Those in attendance at the Chautauqua Tuesday night met with a treat in the way of being herded into the immense tent, with the elements above turned loose, seemingly, and a deluge pouring down upon them, much to the discomfort of some, while others were seemingly unmindful, and others amused. There were threatening interferences with the program, which was completed, although it was later than the usual time.

The delightful American comedy, "Nothing but the Truth," was one of the pleasing features. This appealed to many, with the degree of interest manifest during the afternoon when Donald McGibney delivered a lecture on "Modern Unrest."

Wednesday night the closing will be marked by the children's pageant, "The Good Fairy Thrift," and concert by the Swiss singers and yodlers. "Human Efficiency" will be the title of a lecture by the noted Ralph Parlette, eastern publisher, who is before the public for the good he believes he can do, not from a standpoint of receiving salary. He is said by some to be the peer of the stage today upon the matters about which he will talk. He is said to be dynamic in a way and to possess a wonderful knowledge of various subjects which will be treated in a remarkable way, much to the interest of all who hear him.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

Sprinkling rates have been made for use of hose while held in hand and can be used only during daylight hours.

Some consumers leave hose running and waste much water. It requires coal which costs $12 per ton to pump water and the coal is hard to get even at that price. The income of the Water Company is not meeting its expenditures at this time and the only recourse it has is to raise rates.

To be saving water by not using it except for necessary purposes is the only way to prevent a raise of rates. Water will be turned off without further notice when found running.
